Bayan College appreciated on Media Discussion by Honorable Minister of Information

Omani Media Code of Conduct is of prime concern for the Sultanate of Oman and its blessed leadership. Oman Journalist Association conducted an open discussion on code of conduct and media in Oman. The program was organized at Omani Cultural Club, Qurum by OJA. The event was held from 7.30 pm to 10.00 pm on Wednesday, May 2, 2018.

The event was held with the presence of His Excellency the Minister of Information Dr. Abdul Moneim bin Mansour Al Hassani and the Chairman and members of the Board of Directors of the Journalist Association, senior academics and other growing journalists. Discussion started with detailed introduction on media and its role in the society.

The discussion was very constructive and mainly focused on the maintenance of professionalism in the contemporary media. Discussed ideas were very useful for the constructive development of media values and Journalism in Omani society. It was really a very interactive, motivating and constructive discussion. The focus of this discussion was the idea introduced by Bayan College on explanation, analysis and understanding of the students of media studies because they are the future of Omani society. His Excellency praised Dr. Abhishek Singh, HOD, Media Studies Department and Bayan College for their contribution and initiatives in the field of media education in the Sultanate. Dr. Mohammed Al-Arimi, Director General of the Public News Agency and Chairman of the Omani Association for Journalists also showed his interest in the college activity and appreciated the contribution of college in the social and national development. The discussion ended with unlimited excitement among the participants as it was really a very useful and meaningful discussion on Code of Conduct and future of Omani Media.
