

Bayan College holds communication workshop

MUSCAT — Bayan College, the first private college to offer degrees in Media Studies recently conducted a free workshop for multidisciplinary engineering and consultancy firm Tebodin & Partner Oman.

Modi al Ghailani, Admin Manager, Bayan College and Fatima Husain, media instructor, Bayan College, visited Tebodin to conduct a workshop on Communication upon invitation from Mohammed al Ruqaishi, In country

Value (ICV) and Business Development Manager (BDM), Tebodi and Partner Oman. The workshop focused on listening skills, importance of communication ethics and small group communication. Mohammed Al Ruqaishi appreciated the efforts of the Bayan College staff and said the attendees found the workshop useful and enjoyable.

Bayan College operates under the supervision of the Ministry of Higher Education, Oman and is affiliated with Purdue University — Calumet, Indiana, USA. The college offers specialised programmes in Journalism, Broadcasting, Public Relations, Advertising, English Professional Writing and English Literature.

Tebodin & Partner Oman is part of the international engineering and services company Bilfinger SE covering consultancy, project management, design and engineering, procurement and construction management.