

English Studies Department

Goals and Objectives

Goal 1 Research

The students will be able to access database using electronic tools to locate sources and integrate information.

Goal 2 Writing

The students will be able to construct logical arguments in writing, and collaborate with others to produce finished texts.

Goal 3 Critical thinking

The students will be adept at identifying and defining problems, developing arguments, questioning assumptions and arriving at logical conclusions.

Goal 4 Interpretive and literary thinking

The students will be skilled at reading, interpreting and analyzing texts of diverse genres.

Goal 5 Engaging diverse perspectives

The students will develop skills in examining and anticipating diverse cultural perspectives to tackle ethical, cultural and social issues.

Goal 6 Content mastery

The students will acquire insight into literary history and genres in addition to various forms of literary analysis.