

Ten Teaching Thoughts with T

*Teaching is an art, not a trained skill,
This has been argued time and again.
Then again, can all of us be teachers?
Teachers are those with a clear calling -
Those who, by nature, perceive learners.
That perception can never be trained,
That sensitive intuition can't be copied.
Teaching methodology can be taught -
The teacher's spirit is inborn - innate.
Teaching indeed, is a blessed, blessing art!*
