Al Habsi approaches Al Hilal of Saudi

Oman's professional goalkeeper Ali al-Habsi has come closer to signing for Al Hilal Club of Saudi Arabia following an offer provided to English Championship club, Reading. Earlier, Al Habsi signed a contract extension which will keep him at Reading until 2019, but he expressed his desire to move to the Saudi club at a meeting he had with the manager of Reading to discuss the Saudi offer.

The strangest sport

The game of chess and you are not of mind, that is one of the most important conditions of your superiority in this game, which requires the greatest amount of concentration, but to practice and have received several strong punches on your head and belly, it is not related to the fundamentals of this game quiet. But a new game has taken place in the world of sport, combining the two mathematical contradictions practiced by the athlete together is boxing and chess, and this is not considered, but beyond the reasonable. Every year, a sport is held, which combines the game of chess and boxing. Each player is chosen from each state. Each sport consists of two halves. In the first half they meet the players and start each with boxing and then when they hear the bell they stop boxing and play. It is amazing to me that the point of transition is in the sport, where the two athletes are very tired, lifting their grips in readiness to punch each other and then the bell rings. The assistants carry a table into the ring; the next round is not another round of boxing,

Beach football

the state of Vienna is held every summer in the summer beach soccer matches, which includes many teams from different parts of the world and the most important match that took place between the team of Tenavia against the team and Barlem was the final game in the sport of beach football consisting of the game of 3 runs for each run 12 minutes net and the timing will depend on the referee's view and if the match

Hans Khoakim Fattsch, CEO of Borussia Dortmund FC, confirmed that Nadia will try to contract with the player "Ashraf Hakim". The right team player permanently. The Moroccan international is playing on loan to the Bavarian club from Real Madrid for 11 million euros for two seasons until June

Yesterday night at 12 o'clock there was a fire in the house of the Minister of Finance Fabre Horan. Which is located in Las Bocas. But the minister's and his family in good health. Only the maids and the guard were injured of simple burns. And the police still didn't find the reason for the fire. They saying that it is a planned fire. And they will arrest the perpetrator. Where the minister said in his testimony that there is someone threatened him. And accusing him of fraud and stealing people's money. The minister says he is the same person who kidnapped his daughter two months ago. The police could not arrest him then because he had fled. The search for the perpetrator is still ongoing.
